Dear Mr. Cozza:

Thank you for your phone call. We understand that you would like to meet with our Chief Scout Executive and National President to discuss changing the Boy Scouts of America's values based membership standards. We respectfully decline your request.

It has been five years since the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Boy Scouts of America has a constitutional right to establish membership standards which reflect our values. We understand that your organization disagrees with this decision. We respect your right to your position on this issue and we ask that you give us the same respect.

Sincerely,

Stephen Medlicott
Director
Marketing & Communications Division
